MESSAGE FROM HON. CHAIRMAN

The National Curriculum Framework (NCF) at the Foundational Stage is crucial as it lays the foundation for a child's educational journey. Here are some key reasons for its importance:

- 1. Holistic Development: The NCF at the foundational stage emphasizes the overall development of a child, including cognitive, social, emotional, and physical growth. It promotes activities that foster creativity, critical thinking, and problem-solving skills from an early age.
- 2. Play-Based and Experiential Learning: The framework encourages play-based and experiential learning, which is essential for young children. This approach makes learning enjoyable and meaningful, helping children grasp concepts through hands-on experiences.
- 3. Cultural Relevance and Inclusivity: The NCF ensures that the curriculum is culturally relevant and inclusive, reflecting the diverse cultural heritage of India. It aims to instill a sense of identity and pride in young learners while promoting respect for diversity.
- 4. Early Literacy and Numeracy: The framework places a strong emphasis on developing early literacy and numeracy skills, which are critical for future learning. It introduces foundational language, reading, and mathematical concepts in a way that is age-appropriate and engaging.
- 5. Teacher Guidance: NCF provides clear guidelines and resources for teachers, enabling them to create a stimulating learning environment. It offers strategies for effective pedagogy, classroom management, and continuous assessment.
- 6. Alignment with NEP 2020: The NCF aligns with the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020, which advocates for a strong foundation in the early years. It supports the vision of NEP to provide quality early childhood education that is equitable and accessible to all children.
- 7. Parental Involvement: The framework recognizes the role of parents in early childhood education and encourages their active participation. It promotes a collaborative approach between educators and parents to support the child's learning and development.

MESSAGE FROM PRINCIPAL DESK

As we move forward in this academic year, it fills my heart with immense pride and joy to witness the continuous growth and development of our Brighton World School family. The past few months have been a testament to the collective efforts of our dedicated teachers, enthusiastic students, and supportive parents, all working together to create a nurturing environment where education thrives.

Our school has been a hive of activity, with a myriad of events and initiatives aimed at holistic learning. From celebrating National Space Day, where our students explored the mysteries of the universe, to the Rangotsav Drawing and Handwriting Competition, which highlighted the creative talents of our young minds, each event has been a step toward fostering creativity, critical thinking, and a love for learning.

The recent Grandparents' Day celebration was a heartwarming reminder of the values we hold dear—respect, gratitude, and family bonds. The smiles on the faces of our beloved grandparents as they participated in the various activities were truly priceless. As we look ahead, our focus remains steadfast on providing quality education that not only prepares our students academically but also shapes them into responsible and compassionate individuals. The safety and well-being of our students are of utmost importance, and we continue to take all necessary measures to ensure a secure and nurturing environment.

I extend my heartfelt thanks to all our teachers, staff, and parents for their unwavering support and dedication. Together, we are building a bright future for our children.

Let us continue to work hand in hand, inspired by the successes we have achieved and motivated to reach even greater heights.

MOM Meeting

Brighton World School presented the Monthly Opportunity Meeting (MOM) report for July month under the esteemed guidance of Hon. Dr. Vaishali Veer Ma'am. Ma'am highlighted a series of strategic insights, innovative initiatives, and collaborative achievements.

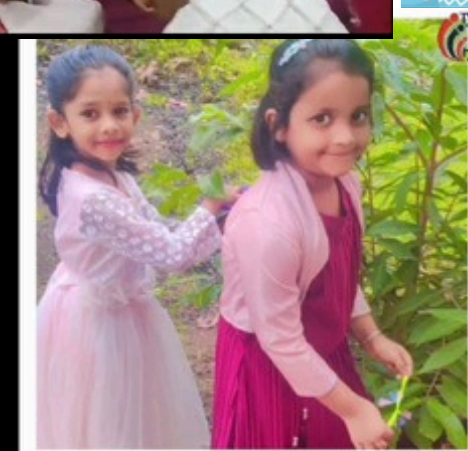

HAPPY Rakshabandhan

Rakshabandhan celebrate school Celebrating Rakshabandhan in schools can be a wonderful way to foster a sense of community and cultural appreciation among students. Here are some common ways schools might celebrate this festival:

1. Rakhi Making Workshops: Students can participate in workshops to create their own rakhis using various materials. This encourages creativity and allows them to learn about the significance of the festival.
2. Cultural Programs: Schools may organize cultural programs that include dance, music, and drama performances related to the themes of Rakshabandhan, highlighting the importance of sibling relationships.
3. Rakhi Tying Ceremony: A special assembly can be held where students can tie rakhis on each other's wrists, promoting friendship and unity among peers.

A meeting was held with the bus driver and staff to discuss the safety and security of students.

On 22nd August 2024, a meeting was conducted with the House keeping staff of Brighton World School to address the critical aspects of student safety and security.

Staff Meeting

On 22nd August 2024, a meeting was conducted with the teaching staff of Brighton World School to address the critical aspects of student safety and security. The discussion emphasized the following key points:

- 1. Vigilance and Supervision: Teachers were reminded of the importance of maintaining constant vigilance, especially during transitions between classes, recess, and other activities. They were advised to ensure that students are always under supervision, particularly in potentially hazardous areas like staircases, playgrounds, and laboratories.
- 2. Emergency Preparedness: The staff was briefed on the existing emergency protocols, including fire drills and lockdown procedures. Teachers were instructed to familiarize themselves with the evacuation routes and ensure that students are aware of the safety procedures.
- 3. Visitor Management: It was reiterated that all visitors to the school must be properly identified and escorted if necessary. Teachers were asked to report any unfamiliar individuals on campus to the administration immediately.
- 4. Bullying Prevention: The meeting addressed the need for active monitoring to prevent bullying or any form of harassment. Teachers were encouraged to foster an inclusive environment where students feel safe and respected.
- 5. Communication Channels: The staff was reminded to maintain open lines of communication with parents and guardians regarding any concerns about a student's well-being. Teachers were also advised to keep the administration informed about any incidents that could affect student safety.

The meeting concluded with a commitment from all staff members to uphold these safety standards and ensure a secure learning environment for all students.

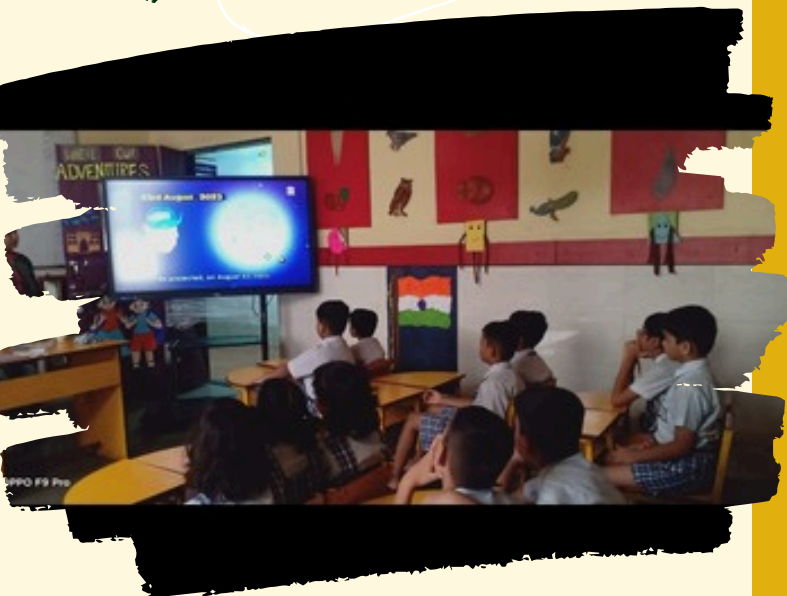

Rangotsav Drawing competition

Brighton World School successfully conducted the Rangotsav Drawing and Handwriting Competition. The event was well-organized, with enthusiastic participation from the students, who showcased their creativity and skills. The competition provided a platform for students to express their artistic talents and improve their handwriting, reflecting the school's commitment to fostering holistic development.

National Space Day Celebration

Brighton World School successfully celebrated National Space Day, engaging students from Grade I to X in various space-related activities. Students in Grade I to III enjoyed informative and entertaining movies about space, sparking their curiosity about the cosmos. Those in Grade IV to VII showcased their creativity in a poster competition, where they depicted various aspects of space exploration. Meanwhile, students in Grade VIII to X participated in a challenging quiz competition, testing their knowledge of space science and deepening their understanding of the universe. The event was a great success, fostering an interest in space among all the students.

National Sports Day

On National Sports Day, Brighton World School celebrated by reflecting on the significance of sports in our lives. The day began with an assembly where students and teachers shared their thoughts on the importance of physical activity and how it contributes to overall well-being. The discussions emphasized how sports foster teamwork, discipline, and resilience, values that are essential both on and off the field.

Various activities were organized, including games and sports competitions, where students actively participated, showcasing their skills and sportsmanship. The event highlighted the role of sports in developing not only physical fitness but also mental toughness and social connections. The celebrations served as a reminder of the vital role sports play in building a healthy, balanced, and successful life.

Monsoon soccer programs, like many sports training initiatives, often focus on a range of learning outcomes. These may include:

- 1. Skill Development: Improving fundamental soccer skills such as dribbling, passing, shooting, and defending.
- 2. Tactical Understanding: Learning about positioning, game strategies, and understanding team dynamics.
- 3. Physical Fitness: Enhancing overall physical fitness, including strength, endurance, and agility.
- 4. Teamwork and Communication: Building effective communication and collaboration skills within a team setting.
- 5. Sportsmanship: Developing a sense of fair play, respect for opponents, and handling wins and losses gracefully.
- 6. Mental Toughness: Strengthening focus, resilience, and the ability to stay motivated through challenges.

ERP System Session

All unit of SSPM's attended demonstration of ERP system which can enhance efficiency, improve communication, support decision-making and many more.

Imagine a World without the internet communication reverts to landlines, letters, and face-to-face interactions. News and information come from newspapers, radio, and television, making it slower to access updates. Research would involve physical libraries and books, and collaboration across distances would rely on postal services or expensive long-distance calls.

Socializing would occur primarily in person or over the phone, with social media non-existent. Entertainment would be found in physical books, DVDs, or live events, rather than streaming services or online gaming.

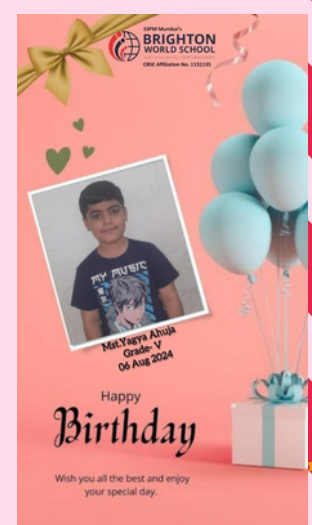

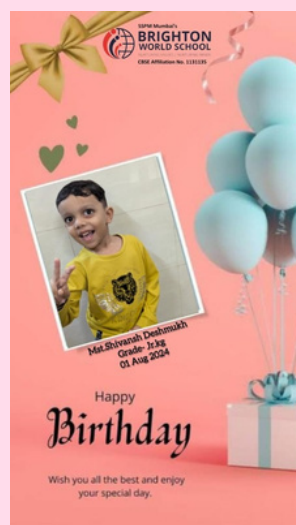

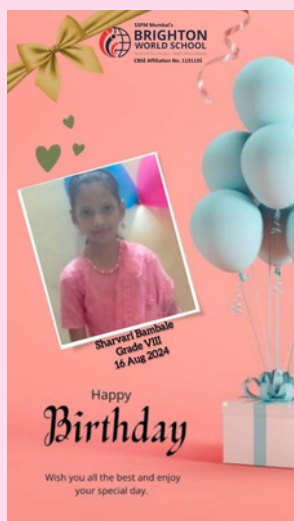

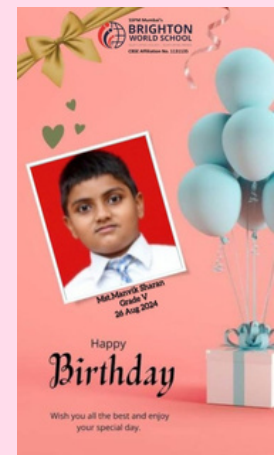

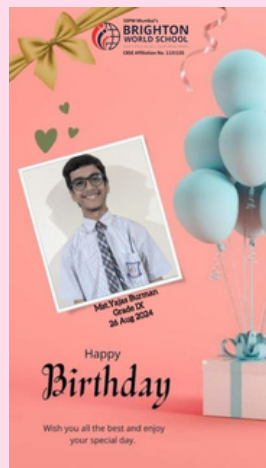

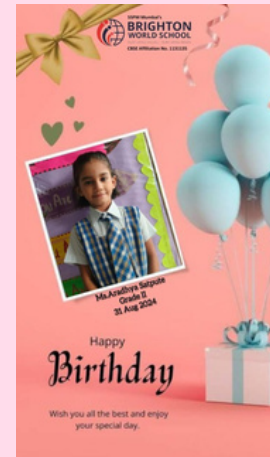

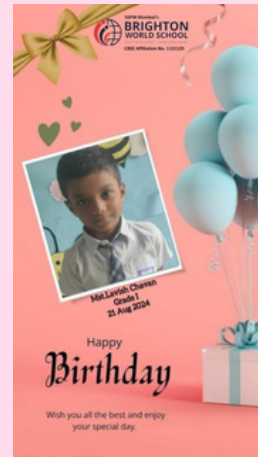

Shopping would require trips to stores, as online shopping wouldn't exist. Banking would be done in person or over the phone. The convenience of on-demand services, instant communication, and limitless information would be replaced by a slower, more deliberate pace of life.

Overall, life would be more localized, less connected globally, and slower-paced, with a stronger reliance on traditional methods of communication and information sharing.

GUIDELINES TO PARENTS AND GUARDIANS

Limiting screen time is essential for a child's balanced development. Here are guidelines for parents:

- 1. Set Clear Limits: Establish daily or weekly limits for screen time and communicate them clearly to your child.
- 2. Lead by Example: Model healthy screen time behaviour yourself to show the importance of balance.
- 3. Designate Screen-Free Zones: Create certain areas, like the dining room or bedrooms, where screens are not allowed.
- 4. Create a Schedule: Allocate specific time slots for different activities, including screen time, homework, outdoor play, and family time.
- 5. Educational Content: Prioritize educational apps, games, and shows that align with your child's age and learning objectives.
- 6. Quality Over Quantity: Focus on the quality of screen time—opt for interactive and educational content.
- 7. Co-View and Co-Play: Engage in screen activities with your child, discussing content and fostering interaction.
- 8. Encourage Variety: Encourage diverse activities like reading, creative play, sports, and hobbies to reduce dependence on screens.
- 9. Monitor Content: Regularly review what your child is watching or playing to ensure appropriateness and safety.
- 10. Use Parental Controls: Utilize parental control features to manage and restrict content access.
- 11. Offline Activities: Encourage off-screen activities like drawing, crafting, board games, or outdoor play.
- 12. Set Screen-Free Times: Designate times for screens to be off, such as during meals, before bedtime, or family gatherings.
- 13. Communicate the Why: Explain to your child the reasons behind screen time limits, focusing on their health, learning, and social interactions.
- 14. Use Rewards: Offer rewards for adhering to screen time limits, such as extra playtime or a special treat.
- 15. Encourage Physical Activity: Prioritize physical activities to promote a healthy lifestyle and reduce sedentary behavior.

Remember, the goal is not to eliminate screens entirely, but to strike a healthy balance that supports your child's overall development and well-being.
